

Research in France!

Scholarship Program for Young Israelis willing to do research in France.

Young Israeli scientists, willing to do research, may qualify for a Fellowship from the French Government. The "Chateaubriand 2017-2018" fellowships call for proposals are open now!

The research will be performed at a French University, a School of Engineering or a Public Laboratory. Any field of research is relevant, such as Exact and Life Sciences, Medicine, Humanities and Social Sciences. Before applying for the fellowships, the candidates must contact the host institution to secure a position (for a Post-Doc) or to register at a French university (for doctoral research). These scholarships are available for a period of 12 consecutive months, with a monthly stipend of 2,055 Euros (Ph.D. student) or 2,466 Euros (Post-Doctorate). Health insurance is also provided.

Applications

The online registration process will allow you to create a personal account, to apply at your ease and to follow-up your candidature.

Visit the website for more information and to submit your application : www.france-israel-fellows.org

The 2017-2018 call for proposals will be open until January 31st, 2017.

Candidates will be notified of their acceptance or rejection by the end of April 2017 in order to be able to begin the scholarship as early as October 2017.

Information Session

You are welcome to an Information Session that will occur on Friday, November 18th at the French Institute in Tel-Aviv, at 10 am. Registration here

It is a great opportunity for you to hear about the scholarships offered by the French Embassy and to ask all the questions you may have in mind about France and its postgraduate education system.

The entrance is free, however the registration is mandatory.
